Christmas Gifts

What is the most essential quality in a satisfactory Christmas gift? Usefulness.

What is it, next to Usefulness, that gives the greatest pleasure? Beauty.

What after Usefulness and Beauty is most highly appreciated? Comfort.

Could anything be more Useful and Beautiful than Hosiery, more Beautiful and Comfortable than Boudoir Slippers, more Comfortable and Useful than Comfy's?

Zellner's is prepared this Christmas with a greater variety, larger stock, and more charming designs than ever before in its history in Faultless Hosiery and Footwear, ideal Christmas presents for everyone, and the most appropriate from anyone.

From Hosiery of the lowest priced and most practical to Footwear of the utmost attractiveness and beauty, Zellner's can furnish the entire Christmas list with the least possible waste effort, and with assurance of perfect satisfaction to the recipient, inasmuch as exchange will be made after Christmas without hesitation if different size or color is desired, and this direct between the receiver and Zellner's, without even involving the donor. Beautiful little Christmas cards to accompany presents are provided without charge.

From prices already low, reductions have again been made in anticipation of the savings to be derived from our new change in policy.

Increased sales of 160 per cent have helped us do it.

HONOR. REV. BOONE UPON OCCASION OF 20TH ANNIVERSARY

First Baptist Church Members
Confer Eulogies and Gifts of Appreciation Upon Dean of Memphis Pastors.

Twenty years ago—the third Sunday in December, 1898—Dr. A. U. Boone of Clarksville, Tenn., stepped into the pulpit at the First Baptist church, on North Second street and Adams avenue and to slightly more than 200 members in the congregation, preached his inaugural sermon. The total membership of the church was about 400.

Next Sunday Dr. Boone will preach to more than 500 members, entering into his second 20 years of faithful service at the church, now located at Linden avenue and South Lauderdale street. The total membership of the church at present is 1,000.

Dr. Boone is the dean of Memphis ministers. He has seen all of them come who are here now and hundreds of others come and go.

Tuesday night the congregation, joined by representatives of other denominations, tendered Dr. and Mrs. Boone a reception in honor of the twentieth anniversary in his pastorate at the First church. It was a happy occasion. The Baptist pastors of Memphis arranged the program of speakers and music and it was one that touched the hearts of those in whose honor it was held.

Rev. Gilbert Dobbs presided and appropriate addresses were delivered by Rev. T. W. Lewis, pastor of Madison Heights Methodist church, Rev. J. W. Gilson, of Nashville; Rev. A. B. Curry, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church; Sam Holloway, representing the congregation, and Rev. D. A. Ellis, pastor of the Le Belle Place Baptist church.

The pastors' conference presented Dr. Boone with a handsome umbrella and the deacons presented him with a desk chair. The women of the church presented Mrs. Boone with a bouquet scarcely less beautiful than the tribute paid to her splendid character.

Many changes have come to Memphis since Dr. Boone came to the First Baptist church 20 years ago. The church at that time an imposing edifice where the courthouse now stands, was one of the landmarks of the city. For many years it has been a powerful factor in the social and religious life of the city. Dr. Boone assumed the pastorate in 1898. The church took on new life and grew as it never had before. The property was disposed of and the present church, one of the most complete in the city, was constructed. It is valued at approximately $100,000.

When Dr. Boone came to Memphis Dr. Leander Wood was pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, Dr. Morris was at the First Methodist, Dr. Davenport was at Calvary, Dr. Patterson was at Grace, Dr. Hugh Spencer Williams was at the Cumberland Presbyterian, now the Court Avenue Presbyterian, and Dr. W. H. Neel was at the First Presbyterian.

During Dr. Boone's pastorate, 60 Baptist ministers have come and gone and scores of other denominations have had ministers, many of them distinguished, who have had their little hour and passed on.

Dr. Boone has received into the church more than 1,000 members and has expanded the activity of the church through the splendid co-operation of his congregation, which has sustained and supported him with unflagging energy throughout his career.

Dr. Boone's son, Rev. W. C. Boone, is pastor of the First Baptist church at Owensboro, Ky., and his daughter, Mrs. F. H. Leavelle, is the wife of the state secretary of the P. U. of Georgia and resides in Atlanta.

NEW YEAR PARTY IS PLANNED BY MOOSE

Memphis lodge No. 153, Loyal Order of Moose, will entertain its members and friends with a New Year stag watch party Tuesday night, Dec. 17.

An excellent program is being arranged and the entertainment will be a unique one. Each member is privileged to bring one nonmember. The entertainment committee in charge of the affair is composed of Lee Swartz, chairman; George A. Canale, Julian Rothschild, O. D. Appleton, E. E. Barber, Joseph M. Samfield, E. Pontius, W. N. Page.

FILE M'HENRY WILL

The will of the late E. B. McHenry has been admitted to probate. The instrument provides that a house and lot in Jefferson City, Mo., shall be left to his son, Edgar T. McHenry, to hold in trust for his grandson, Edgar T. McHenry, Jr., and that testator's sister, Mrs. J. H. Green, shall be given a home in this house during her lifetime. The remainder of the estate, real, personal and mixed, is left to the testator's son, Edgar T. McHenry, who is made executor of the will without bond.

THINK FIFTEEN DEAD.

WINNIPEG, Man., Dec. 18.—Fifteen persons are believed to have been burned to death in the fire that yesterday destroyed a tourist coach on a Canadian Pacific train at Roux, near station, 12 miles west of Fort William, Ontario. Twelve passengers were rescued, four slightly injured.

POLICE ON STRIKE.

TORONTO, Dec. 18.—The Toronto police force began a strike this morning in protest against the dismissal by the police commissioners of 13 members of the police union, which the commissioners had refused to recognize because of its affiliation with the trades and labor council of 500 policemen about 90 remained on duty.

Russ Go to Paris.

Prince Lvoff, who was premier in the Kerensky cabinet, and Boris Bakmeteff, Russian ambassador in Washington, appointed by Kerensky, as well as Prof. Paul Milukoff, Kerensky's foreign minister, are on their way to Paris with other prominent Russians to do whatever they can to aid the allies in the solution of the Russian problem. But whether they represent the people of Russia at this time is a question which it privately is admitted can not be answered here.

Prince Lvoff has recently been in Washington, where he discussed the situation in his country with President Wilson and Secretary Lansing. Alexieff, Denekine and other Cosack leaders are in contrast to the Cosack districts on the Don and at Orenburg, and are maintaining a government more nearly stable than any other in Russia at present, unless it is at Archangel, which is operating in accord with the allied forces.

Far from according any recognition to the soviet regime at Petrograd, the United States some time ago called upon all civilized nations to condemn the Bolshevik reign of terror.

Russia Accessible.

Even when a set of leaders is recognized as Russian spokesmen, the United States and the allies must face the great question of how they can be aided in setting up a stable government and in preventing famine for the benefit of Russia herself and in the interest of world peace. Until an armistice was signed, troops and supplies could be sent to Russia only through Siberia, a distance two-thirds of the way around the world, or by Archangel, which was not feasible. Now, however, the Black sea, the Baltic sea and the railroad lines through German and Austrian territory offer better means. It is believed by officials here that the land route through Germany and Austria would be the best and most practical way of reaching Russia.

It is stated that in considering whether a joint expedition should be sent to deal with and thereby interfere with Russia's internal affairs, the representatives of the United States and the allies must decide whether the Bolshevik movement is such a serious menace to civilization as to justify extraordinary steps to eliminate it. To aid him in the conference with the allied leaders, President Wilson has taken a corps of Russian experts with
